General Rules and Regulations

1. Natural plant material must dominate the design. No artificial plant material.
2. Competitors may not receive help or advice while busy with their arrangements. They may only receive help with the carrying and positioning of heavy materials before commencing.
3. The use of cell phones while busy with an arrangement is strictly forbidden.
4. No parents or teachers allowed in the hall or to help the students from outside while they are busy with their arrangements. Failure to adhere to this rule may result in the disqualification of the participating student.
5. Pre-constructed plant materials need to be cleared with organisers on duty and may not dominate the design.
6. Only one arrangement per person per theme will be allowed.
7. Exhibits may not exceed the given space (Refer Divisions for theme specific measurements).
8. Competitors are responsible for the removal of debris and the overall neatness of the space around their arrangements.
9. The Winter Festival property may not be damaged or altered in any way whatsoever.
10. It is the responsibility of the competitor to replace wilted plant material while still maintaining the form of the original arrangement. Any noticeable changes will result in the forfeiting of the prize money.
11. In order to advance from one division to the next a competitor needs to obtain Gold three times in their current division. (Newcomers will start with Division A: Beginners).
12. Pre-constructed designs (Division D, Theme 2) will not be taken into consideration for the overall best or runner up award.
13. No responsibility will be accepted for the damage or loss of property suffered by any participant.
14. Designs may be collected on Sunday, 29 APRIL 2018, between 9:00 and 13:00.
15. The judges' decision will be final!
